

BARD CORE Curriculum!

Reading into Shakespeare

Sheldon and Bobbi Zabel Bard Core Program

2020 CHICAGO HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER SEMINAR

- Who 14 CPS high school English teachers
(priority given to teachers at non-selective high schools)
- What 5 mornings this summer + 3 Saturday mornings during the school year
- Why Because now more than ever we all need language to help shape our experiences in the world. AND, because Shakespeare in any high school classroom can be achievable, engaged learning—and fun!
- Where Zoom! This year, we'll plan to move our synchronous classroom online.
- When
  - Sessions 1-5 Monday, August 3 through Friday, August 7
(Mon/Fri, 9:00–11:30 a.m., Tue/Wed/Thu, 9:00–11:00 a.m.)
  - Session 6 September Saturday, date TBD, 9:00–10:30 a.m.
  - Session 7 October Saturday, date TBD, 9:00–10:30 a.m.
  - Session 8 November Saturday, date TBD, 9:00–10:30 a.m.

* Lane credit requires participants to submit lesson plans, as well as completing required reading—approximately 30 minutes for each session.

FREE Seminar

PLUS!
Earn CPDUs and 1 Lane Credit*

Give us 15 hours, and it may just change your classroom—and your students—for life.

Participants will be introduced to a range of tools used by theater artists to break open Shakespeare's words and engage with them actively and creatively (aligned to Common Core State Standards and the CPS Framework for Teaching). Together, we will explore how active, language-based strategies authentically engage an online classroom in reading Shakespeare—and much, much more.
