Hymn

Directed by three-time Jeff Award winner Ron OJ Parson

Starring Chicago actors Chiké Johnson and James Vincent Meredith

Through May 25 in the Courtyard Theater

Chicago—April 30, 2025—Chicago Shakespeare Theater \(CST\) presents Hymn, playing through May 25 in the Jentes Family Courtyard Theater. Legendary Chicago director Ron OJ Parson leads a powerhouse Chicago cast and creative team to bring this deeply resonant tribute to male friendship to the stage, starring Chiké Johnson and James Vincent Meredith. Playwright Lolita Chakrabarti has transposed her play to the South Side of Chicago following an acclaimed premiere at London’s Almeida Theatre, hailed by The Standard as a “Rich and moving ode to male friendship.” The creative team also includes scenic and projection designer Rasean Davonté Johnson, costume designer Yvonne Miranda, lighting designer Jason Lynch, and sound designer and composer Willow James.

Two men from two very different neighborhoods meet as strangers, but before long—they’re singing the same tune. Benny is a loner anchored by his wife and children. Gil longs to fulfil his potential. They form a deep bond, but as cracks appear in their fragile lives, they start to realize that true courage comes in different forms. Set on Chicago’s South Side and brimming with the sounds of R&B, gospel, and house music, this soulful play takes an honest look at love, faith, and friendship in all of life’s beautiful complexities.

Chiké Johnson plays Benny, making his Chicago Shakespeare debut. Johnson is a company member of Remy Bumpo Theatre and has worked on many stages in Chicago and around the country, including Broadway credits Time to Kill and Wit. His recent Chicago credits include Toni Stone at Goodman Theatre, Northlight’s production of Birthday Candles, Remy Bumpo’s world premiere production of Galileo’s Daughter, and the world premiere of When Harry Met Rehab at the Greenhouse Theater Center. Johnson’s other credits include Ma Rainey’s Black Bottom and King Lear at American Player’s Theatre, Ruined at Manhattan Theatre Club, RunBoyRun at New York Theatre Workshop, and New York City Center’s Encores Lost in the Stars.

James Vincent Meredith plays Gil. Meredith returns to Chicago Shakespeare with credits including the title role in Othello, Much Ado About Nothing, The Merchant of Venice, Measure for Measure, and Julius Caesar. He is a Steppenwolf ensemble member with 19 credits including John Proctor in The Crucible and most recently Noises Off. His Broadway credits include The Book of Mormon, The Minutes, The Skin of Our Teeth, and Superior Donuts. Meredith’s other Chicago theatre credits include work at the Goodman Theatre, Lookingglass Theatre, Writers Theatre, Victory Gardens Theatre, and Court Theater, and he has appeared on TV in Chicago Med (NBC), Your Honor (Showtime) FBI (CBS) and Fargo (FX).

Ron OJ Parson is the co-founder and former artistic director of Onyx Theatre Ensemble, a resident artist at Court Theatre, and an ensemble member at TimeLine Theatre. In 2022, he received the Zelda Fichandler Award from the Stage Directors and Choreographers Foundation and was recognized as the Chicago Tribune’s Chicagoan of the Year for Theater. He has won three Jeff Awards for directing for Relentless at TimeLine Theatre, and Blues for an Alabama Sky and Fences at Court Theatre.

Other credits include East Texas Hot Links, The Lion In Winter, Arsenic and Old Lace, Two Trains Running, King Hedley II, Radio Golf, Five Guys Names Moe, Gem of the Ocean, Seven Guitars, Jitney, and The Piano Lesson at Court Theatre, Trouble in Mind, Too Heavy For Your Pocket, and A Raisin in the Sun at TimeLine Theatre Company, Toni Stone and Sweat at Goodman Theatre, and Ma Rainey's Black Bottom and East Texas Hot Links at Writers Theatre.

"I've long admired the work at Chicago Shakespeare, during my theater journey here in Chicago," said Parson. "I am truly honored to be working on Hymn by world renowned playwright Lolita Chakrabarti. As my journey continues, what better play than a play about brothers, family, love, faith, and hope. What the world needs a lot of. Peace."

CST artistic director Edward Hall said, "In my brief time in Chicago it has not taken me long to get acquainted with the work of the brilliant Ron O J Parson. Both Lolita and I felt he was the missing piece in this delicate jigsaw, and I am deeply happy that the play resonated so powerfully with him. This will be Ron's Chicago Shakespeare debut, and I am delighted to be welcoming the director of such a huge and important body of work into our company."

Lolita Chakrabarti won the Olivier Award for Best New Play for her adaptation of Yann Martel's novel Life of Pi, which later went on to a Tony Award-winning Broadway run and a national tour. Her adaptation of Maggie O'Farrell's novel Hamnet premiered at the Royal Shakespeare Company and the West End last year. Chakrabarti's debut play Red Velvet enjoyed an acclaimed run at CST in 2017.

"I wanted to write a story of two Black men who find love with each other—a familial, platonic love," says Chakrabarti. "My own male friends have often surprised me with their sensitivity, femininity, fussiness, insecurities, fun, kindness, and warmth—the list goes on. Hymn was born out of my desire to tell a different story. To reframe this play for Chicago is very exciting indeed, and I believe it will lend itself beautifully to this city's rich culture."

Parson is joined on the creative team by scenic and projection designer Rasean Davonté Johnson, a two-time Jeff Award winner returning to Chicago Shakespeare after Measure for Measure and It Came From Outer Space, with other recent credits including Romeo and Juliet at Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Lucha Teotl at Goodman Theatre, and Her Honor Jane Byrne at Lookingglass Theatre; costume designer Yvonne Miranda, who makes her CST debut with recent credits including Leroy & Lucy at Steppenwolf Theatre, Primary Trust at Goodman Theatre, and The Hot Wing King at Writers Theatre; lighting designer Jason Lynch, a Jeff Award winner returning to CST after Beauty and the Beast, with other credits including Layalina and the ripple, the wave that carried me home at Goodman Theatre and Choir Boy at Steppenwolf Theatre; and sound designer and composer Willow James, who returns to CST after Twelfth Night, with other credits including A Christmas Carol, The Penelopiad, and The Nacirema Society at Goodman Theatre.

The team also includes Bob Mason (Casting), Kamesha Khan (Dramaturg), Cristin Carole (Assistant Director), A Inn Doo (Assistant Scenic Designer), Alyssa Mohn (Assistant Scenic Designer), Andrei Borges (Assistant Lighting Designer), Ian Weber (Assistant Sound Designer), Andres Fiz (Associate Projections Designer), Aja Singletary (Boxing Consultant), Felicia P. Fields (Music Consultant), Deya S. Friedman (Stage Manager), and Katrina Herrmann (Assistant Stage Manager).

The press opening for Hymn is scheduled for Saturday, May 3 at 7:00 p.m.
